AFI singers hold charity concert in Washington DC

Washington, DC (ANTARA News) - Four young singers from the Akademi Fantasi Indonesia (AFI) held a charity concert here on Saturday.

The four were Tia, the first winner of the AFI 2004; Ade, the first winner of the AFI 2005; Indri, the runner up of the AFI 2005 and Adit the favorite contestant in the AFI 2005.

The four will travels to some cities in the US for 10 days, holding the concerts and undergoing a tv-reality show, "Dreams Come True", said Ira Asnan who organizes the concert.

In Delaware, the four will visit the old-people`s nursing house and entertain them, she added.

She said half of the tickets` revenue would be donated for quake victims at home. (*)
